

shaping the future together

Wychavon Community Plan Core Group

---

Meeting agenda: Thursday, 27 November 2008, 10.00am for 10.30am

Room 23, Wychavon District Council, Pershore

Refreshments will be available from 10.00am

1. Welcome & apologies

Apologies received from Cllr Bob Banks and Chris Brooks

2. Notes of the last meeting & matters arising – 25 September 2008 (previously circulated)

Presentations/strategic issues

3. Impact of the current economic situation ALL

There will be an opportunity to discuss the impact of the current economic situation on residents and businesses in Wychavon. Partners will be invited to briefly share what they are already doing in response to the situation and we will discuss what more we can do in partnership.

4. Community strategy – a year on are we delivering? ALL (the latest update will be circulated at the meeting as some updates are still outstanding)

We will review the progress we've made so far at delivering the Community Strategy and what actions we still need to put in place. We will also agree future performance management and reporting arrangements.

Operational issues

5. Health improvement fund – potential bid

Paul Madill will join us for this item. He will outline proposals for a potential bid to the LAA Health Improvement Fund for a project aimed at reducing the adult smoking rate in Wychavon.

6. Feedback on Wychavon District Council's annual promises (paper attached)

Wychavon District Council is currently in the process of developing its annual promises. These are a key element of the council's five year strategy. The council is keen to get feedback from Core Group partners about affordable and deliverable things it could do in 2009/10 that will contribute to the council's five year goals and LAA targets.
